“BLISSFUL, BEAUTIFUL AND EXTRA, EXTRA SPECIAL

On the very first evening, I enjoyed a sunset cruise on the traditional Maldivian dhoni hosted by Huvafen Fushi's fantastic General Manager and Operations Director. So friendly, down-to-earth and welcoming were they that my fellow guests and I felt we'd known each other for years instead of hours!

I wandered over to the beach one evening as someone had mentioned to see the sunset. I wasn't quite sure what to expect but was amazed to spy a handful of seriously large rays - literally inches from the shoreline. The resort's marine biologist has been coming every day for ears for a fishy treat at tea-time. It was such a fun and wonderful experience being able to feed the rays - just prepare as they flap over your feet and legs and give you a soaking!! ”

Huvafen has that very special something and is a resort that I would love to return to, time and time again. I fondly think of it as my cherished home from home.

CUBE - THE GRAND BEACH PAVILION 800sqm

Vintage nostalgia meets modern Parisian living, with an elevated master bedroom. This luxury Maldives penthouse features an oversized ocean-view bath, private steam and sauna wet area and balcony overlooking a black lava-stone infinity pool.

WELCOME TO CUBE

AUSTRALIA'S LUXURY TRAVEL MAGAZINE EDITOR ANDREW CONWAY SPENDS A NIGHT OF SHEER HEAVEN IN CUBE, UVAFEN FUSHI'S NEW GRAND BEACH PAVILION

It's a check-in like no other. As our dedicated thakuru, Nazeeh, guides us along a secluded sand pathway, through an imposing thatched entrance gate and into a verdant tropical courtyard, our expectations of Huvafen Fushi's new Grand Beach Pavilion are running high.

Our jaws start to drop as he escorts us through the expansive open-plan living space, from gourmet kitchen to 12-seat dining table to luxe living room, and out onto a spectacular terrace with an oversize pool, alfresco dining and relaxation decks, an outdoor shower, and a toes-in-the-sand garden fronting the island's impossibly blue coral reef.

Back inside, Nazeeh literally wafts his hand over a state-of-the-art Bang & Olufsen sound system, instantly firing up a chilled house music mix, as he points to the staircase and says simply: "Shall we?"

The word 'wow' doesn't begin to describe upstairs, another vast open-plan living space featuring a centrepiece bed, an enormous spa bath with views of the Indian Ocean, a wet area with separate steam room and sauna, a Kardashian-worthy dressing room, and a sunset-facing balcony.

The décor is New York loft-style meets Parisian boudoir with an eclectic mix of classic and contemporary furnishings from bijou to bling that's straight out of the pages of Architectural Digest.

A stunning hideaway and the new jewel in the crown of Huvafen Fushi's 44 overwater and beachfront pool bungalows, CUBE, a two-storey, 800sqm pavilion, is perfect for guests holidaying seeking a grand private domain of their very own, complete with 24/7 butler service and a personal chef on call.

Despite putting on our best George and Amal Clooney faces (George is another Huvafen fanatic, or should that be a Huvafan?), we barely scratch the surface of everything the CUBE has to offer in an overnight stay.

We naturally imbibe at the cocktail bar, swim in the infinity pool (which lights up an edgy scarlet red at night), laze in the sunsplashed beach pavilion, and wallow in our spa bath, relishing the surroundings of this magnificent abode.
